Winner—B. c. by Fitz James—Petal II. (trained by J. McLaughlin).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Blue and Orange and Star and Garter got away well and had the race between them all the way, the former lasting longest under a vigorous ride and winning all out. Star and Garter showed the most early speed, but tired at the end. Lord Turco was in pockets to the stretch and closed up fast at the end. Petit Bleu ran a winning race, considering the ride and the big gap she closed. Rostand was repeatedly interfered with and made up ground in the last quarter. Blue Jay ran in improving form. Wax Candle, off poorly, saved ground on the stretch turn and came fast, but tired in the stretch run. Rosewater was crowded back on the first turn. Scoffer ran a good race for five furlongs and was eased at the end.

Scratched—38616 Ravelment, 106; 38494 Cranesville, 90; 38525 Bride Card, 99; (38629) Explorer, 97.

Overweights—Ringdove, 5 pounds.

Winner—Ch. h. by Enthusiast or Atheling—Mill Cog (trained by F. Weir).

Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Armeath handled the weight in good style and was under a hard drive in the stretch to catch Tim D. Jr., but was going away at the end. He is a good horse and steadily improves. Tim D. Jr. got off flying, showed a fine turn of speed and hung on gamely at the end. His weight was too much for Cinquevalli and Burns was hustling him on the stretch turn to keep up. Wealth was crowded out at the start and made up a big gap and finished going fast. Orloff made up a lot of ground. Schoharie will do in slower company. Mamari ran poorly.

Scratched—(38491) Saccharometer, 140.

Armeath, show, 6 to 5. Tim D. Jr., show, 15 to 1. Cinquevalli, show, 7 to 10. Wealth, show, evens. Schoharie, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 1:22, 23 1/2, 48 1/2, 1:01 1/2.

Winner—B. c. by Russell—Madame Hindoo (trained by G. Walker).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Molinos is a good game colt, broke well, but was outrun early and had to stand a long hard drive to get up. Highball closed up with a rush at the end under a hard drive and his race was a good one. Hazelwood is a consistent youngster, was in a jam on the backstretch, but made up ground and was gaining on the winner at the end. Tim Payne showed great speed, but was made too much use of and tired badly in the stretch. Careless tired after going a good half mile. Graziallo tired after being hard ridden to get to the front and was eased up in the final sixteenth. There was a jam on the backstretch soon after the start and all the horses suffered but Tim Payne, as he was clear at the time.

Molinos, show, out. Highball, show, 2 to 1. Hazelwood, show, 1 to 3. Graziallo, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Early Morn (trained by G. Walker).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Rightful's performance was a high-class one. Under a good ride he forced the pace throughout, showed fine speed and finished gamely, but was all out and doing his best at the end. Africander had to go all around his field to get up, finished going fast and the race should fit him. He is a good colt when right. Colonist could not keep up in the first part of the race, but made up ground in the stretch. Dr. Saylor tired when hard pressed in the stretch. Ahumada was used up racing with the winner and his race for seven furlongs was a good one. Embarrassment got off poorly, but made up ground and was a sharp contender to the final furlong. Miss Dorothy was pulled up in the stretch. Pageant wheeled as the barrier went up.

Scratched—38672 Orloff, 103; 38403 Squanto, 98.

Overweights—Miss Dorothy, 2 pounds.

Albany Girl made up ground in the stretch. Sister Juliet would have won with an even break and clear sailing. She was penned in next to the rail all the way and could not get out and was eased up at the end and cantering. Agnes D. got off poorly. Julia Junkin could not last the route.

Mimon showed the most speed and raced Yo San into submission, drew away at the stretch turn and had plenty left at the end. Yo San ran a good race, but tired as if short. Tempe J. began slowly, but made up ground and ran a good race and is worth remembering in the same company. All Colors did not show much speed. The other two bolted as the barrier went up.

Scratched—38554 Albertola, 112; 38644 Miss Eugenie, 112; Rachel Dooley, 112.

OFF DAY AT WORTH.

The unseasonably cold spell that prevailed here yesterday played havoc with the attendance at Worth. Still the crowd was as great as could have been expected under the circumstances. The rain rendered the track somewhat muddy, but still there was a good bottom and horses were able to get a firm foothold. Despite the unfavorable conditions for racing there was comparatively little scratching indulged in and the fields, bar one, were fairly large.

The most important race of the day was the fourth, a dash of one mile and seventy yards for three-year-olds and upward. C. B. Campbell opened at 2 to 1 in the betting, but steady backing cut the odds down to 6 to 5. He rewarded the confidence placed in him by winning somewhat handsily after a little shaking up at the last sixteenth post. Albula, as was expected, set the pace for the first seven furlongs where Scotch Plaid and C. B. Campbell moved up on even terms with him. The three swung into the stretch together, but in the final sixteenth C. B. Campbell outstayed them, winning by a neck, Albula lasting long enough to beat out Scotch Plaid a neck for second place. Bondage finished fourth, two lengths back. Scotch Plaid, under a hard drive, stuck to his work tenaciously all through the final quarter.

Ahola made a show of the field in the third race, a dash of once around the track for three-year-olds. The minute the barrier went up she shot to the front and, displaying keen speed throughout, never left the result in doubt, winning in a canter by five lengths from Prodigal Son which beat Angelo eight for second place. The last named tired rapidly just after turning for home.

In the opening race, a four-furlong scramble for maiden two-year-old fillies, Pocassat, held at 7 to 1, proved to be the best, finishing one and a half lengths before Interrogation, which beat Shades of Night one for second place. Interrogation began slowly, but made up ground fast after turning for home. In the closing strides, however, she tired perceptibly.

Tayon, the even money favorite in the second race, a six-furlong dash for three-year-olds and upward, had little trouble in annexing the purse to his owner's credit. He carried Marco along at a fast gait for the first four and a half furlongs, where the latter retired and he then assumed an easy lead, winning by one length from O'Hagen, which finished three and a half lengths before Double O for second place. O'Hagen, under punishment, finished going fast. Doeskin was well spent when a furlong out, although pocketed at the time. Marco showed speed and bears watching, especially over a soft or a heavy track. There was somewhat spirited backing for Vulcan, but he never gave his backers the slightest hope for success, showing scant speed throughout.

It was conceded on all sides that Claremont held the field safe in the fifth race, a four and a half furlongs dash. He was made a 1 to 2 favorite and won as the odds indicated he should. Off flying, he darted to the front, and soon opened up a gap of four lengths, easily holding the lead throughout. In the last sixteenth Dominick eased him up a little, but even then he crossed the line two and a half lengths before Salto, which finished the same distance before Elie for second place. Salto began slowly, but made up ground fast in the last quarter. Elie tired slightly when the pinch came.

The last race of the day, a spin of one and a sixteenth miles for three-year-olds and upward, proved to be an easy thing for Bonnie Lissak, which was the medium of heavy backing, opening at 6 and closing at 4 to 1. Haydon, showing his customary speed, led until just before the final quarter had been reached, where Bonnie Lissak passed him easily at call, winning as her rider pleased by six lengths from Goldaga, which beat Haydon three for second place. Goldaga ran right to his best form and met with no mishaps. Haydon maintained his speed for about seven and a half furlongs only. Zonne showed scant speed and can do better. Miss Liza was never a serious factor. Branch showed a little early speed.

The track will be slow today at its best. Despite the diminished attendance the betting was spirited and somewhat heavy.

A rumor was current among the horsemen yesterday that Mr. Spiers, acting as agent for E. E. Smathers the owner of McChesney and Dick Bernard, had requested S. C. Hildreth to handle the horses. The latter agreed to do so, and presented an order to Fred Foster, who has the horses in charge at present at the Hawthorne track, to ship them to Worth. This, the latter is said to have refused to do, claiming to have a contract with Mr. Smathers to train the horses. Mr. Hildreth is reported to have secured the necessary papers and will try to force Foster to turn the horses over to him. The cause for the change in trainers is causing much speculation and various are the explanations concerning it. The principal one and which probably is the correct one, is that Hildreth understands McChesney better than anybody else, having developed him and really made him the grand racer he is.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Inquirer. The parlay ending with "Judge" place in the last race at Oakland should be paid. There was no other "Judge" than Judge Voorhees in that race and, under the circumstances of the bet, the bookmakers must have considered him the horse bet on.

I. D. A., Chicago. Having taken the bet on Woodshade, the bookmaker should pay it. You should not deal with a man who does not act honestly in transactions with his patrons.

Peter G., Georgetown, Ky. Fuller rode Ernest Parham at Aqueduct April 13.

J. B. R., Chicago. Scioto, sister to Imp, died nearly a month back.

Socapa was favored by the accident which befell Fridolin, but at that showed speed throughout, ran to his best form and finished gamely. First One was forced to pull up when the horses fell, came around the field and ran into the lead, but tired in the final furlong. For the same reason Dr. Hart had to pull up, then made up much ground and ran a good race. Hallucination showed improvement. Crutchfield ran fairly well. Varner can do better.
Scratched—38647 Milky Wave, 86.

Chappaqua was fit and ready, came with a rush through the stretch and won easily up. Reducer got off poorly, but made up ground steadily and ran to his best form. Ben Lear showed speed, but tired from racing closely with Chappaqua. Glendon was rushed to the front at the start, but could not stand the pace and quit badly. Kiss Quick was cut off at the start. Herodes was shut off and pulled up at the half mile post. Boundlee ran poorly.

South Breeze showed great improvement over her Memphis form, was always a contender, came fast through the stretch and won going away. Scortic made up much ground in the run through the stretch and ran to his best form. Kaffir was made too much use of in leading to the stretch and tired when hard driven. Edgardo showed early speed. Flintlock quit badly in the stretch and ran below his true form.

Monos dashed into an early lead, but was taken back and got cut off and pocketed. In the stretch he came on fast and barely got up in the closing stride. Mary Moore came fast around the turn, took what seemed a safe lead in the stretch and lost because Johnson was hampered and interfered with. Countess Clara showed early speed.

Winner—Ch. f. by Mordotte—Idelbridge (trained by J. Gray).
Went to post at 2:30. Off at once to a good start. Won handily; second easily. Pocassat took kindly to the going, showed much speed and was needlessly put to the whip in the last sixteenth. Interrogation began slowly and made up ground fast in the last quarter, but tired palpably in the closing strides. Shades of Night showed speed, but tired fast when the pinch came. Cassie Schuler finished going fast. Away Right showed some early speed.
Overweights—Croppie, 3½ pounds.
Pocassat, show, 4 to 5. Interrogation, show, 1 to 2. Shades of Night, show, 1 to 2. Away Right, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. h. by Lissak—Caroline Hamilton (trained by W. Phillips).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same.
Tayon was carried along at a fast gait for the first four furlongs by Marco, but easily shook him off in the last eighth and won as his rider pleased. O'Hagen ran well and finished going fast. Double O. finished third simply because Doeskin and Marco tried very fast when a furlong out. Doeskin was pocketed badly at the last eighth post, but was thoroughly beaten at the time. The others were never in the hunt.
Scratched—38386 St. Cuthbert, 106; 38516 The Caxton, 99.
Overweights—Amirante, 1 pound.
Tayon, show, 1 to 3. O'Hagen, show, 1 to 2. Double O., show, 3 to 1.

 Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Mafalda and Miss Crawford fought it out sharply all through the last three furlongs and the former got the verdict by the narrowest of margins. With a stronger rider up, however, Mafalda's victory would have been more decisive. Miss Crawford was speedy and hung on gamely. Emperor of India closed up fast in the stretch run. Sweetness and Light tumbled in the final sixteenth and ran out several times.

 Winner—B. c. by Russell or First Mate—Ballerina (trained by J. Walker).
 Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Bargee wore down Flaneur in the homestretch and was going away at the finish. Flaneur showed the most speed, but tired at the end from setting a hot pace. Presgrave was cut off at the start, but made up much ground and finished going fast. There was considerable crowding at the first turn and Cast Iron was badly cut off. Anglesea showed speed for six furlongs.
 Overweights—Presgrave, 2 pounds.

 Winner—B. c. by Tithonus—Ma Belle (trained by W. McDaniel).
 Went to post at 3:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Talhouet's victory was a lucky one. He came with a rush and Crowhurst on Paris was overconfident and allowed Scully to creep up on him and steal the race in the last few strides. Paris showed the most speed and would have won with something to spare had Crowhurst persevered with him. Wenrick ran his best race. Tennessean ran well, but tired in the last sixteenth. Triumvir showed early speed.
 Scratched—(38654) Brancas, 110; (38626) Lord French, 106; (38565) Radium, 103.

 Went to post at 4:26. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Fore and Aft outclassed his company, drew away from the others after going the first quarter and was only cantering thereafter. Outlaw came fast through the stretch and outstayed James F. in a driving finish. James F. was made too much use of, Daly whipping him all down the backstretch and he tired in the final drive. Heather Bee was out of place.

 Winner—B. f. by St. Carlo—Bessie W. (trained by W. P. Magrane).
 Went to post at 2:17. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second driving. St. Phillipina was lucky at the start and under a skillful ride indulged Cousin Carrie with the lead to the stretch, where she cantered past her and won easily. Cousin Carrie got away running and made the most of her advantage and held on gamely in a long drive. San Lution closed a big gap and being badly ridden swerved at the end. Maresa quit badly in the last quarter. Sharp Bird is in poor form. Tyranus made up much ground from a bad start.
 Overweights—San Lution, 1 pound; Bogus Bill, 1.
 St. Phillipina, show, evens. Cousin Carrie, show, 4 to 5. San Lution, show, 2 to 1.

 Winner—Br. f. by Mt. McGregor II.—Juanita II. (trained by F. Edwards).
 Went to post at 2:50. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Juana received a flying start and that won for her. She is steadily improving and ran a fast and game race. Strife, crowded and pulled up at the start, closed a tremendous gap and finished like a whirlwind although very badly ridden and was much the best. Ravelena was favored at the start, but failed to stay and was swerving all over the track at the end. Rose Farr had scant chance with a bad jockey. Planet has trained off and is a quitter. Emil ran a poor race.
 Scratched—38448 Captain Forsee, 105; 38600 Metlakatla, 102.

 Winner—B. g. by Vassal—Idol (trained by F. McMahon).
 Went to post at 3:17. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Vassalo, fresh and good and much the best, waited for seven furlongs on the pacemaker, cantering into the lead when called on and came home alone. Tizona was lucky and prominent throughout and put up a game stretch struggle. Frank Woods, away poorly, closed a big gap and seemed secure of second place, but tired right at the end. Position worked through a rough early journey and made up many lengths in the last half. Montana Peers went well.
 Scratched—38603 Royalty, 101; 38633 July Gip, 101.
 Vassalo, show, 8 to 5. Tizona, show, 4 to 5. Frank Woods, show, 1 to 2. Position, show, 1 to 2.
